

Reference Letter

Mr. Rajeev Naresh Chander Sharma, an Indian citizen born on 16 December 1976, joined Infosys Consulting AG on 21 January 2022 as Principal in the CRL practice.

Infosys Consulting is a wholly owned subsidiary of Infosys, a global leader in consulting, technology and outsourcing solutions, with over 200.000 employees serving clients in more than 50 countries. Infosys Consulting forms the global management consulting arm of Infosys. A pioneer in breaking down the barriers between strategy and execution, Infosys Consulting delivers superior business value to its clients by advising them on strategy and process optimization as well as IT-enabled transformation.

In his position, Mr. Sharma is responsible for the following main tasks:

- Program Governance for a leading Cruise line client: He reviewed and established key processes and tools to be enabled for effective IT PMO setup. He also successfully managed SAP PMO activities during the transition to ensure program success and timely delivery.
- Program Manager - Supplier portal for a leading retail client: He was responsible for designing, developing, and implementing a new supplier engagement CSM portal leveraging Service Now. This enabled a nearly 30% reduction in supplier queries related to Invoices and payments and ensured effective procurement and financial team setup.
- Business development: He led multiple business development pursuits and responses to RFP, He also proactively partnered with other Infosys consulting units and partner organizations to contribute towards business development opportunities.

Mr. Sharma has sound and well-based specialist knowledge in his entire area of responsibility combined with a good understanding of cross-disciplinary interrelationships. Making targeted use of his expertise, he works with strong persistence, always stays on the ball and handles an above-average workload. We have come to know Mr. Sharma as a diligent and efficient member of our team who capably deals with several tasks at the same time. Highly resilient, he works well under pressure and usually stays calm even in stressful situations.

Mr. Sharma is reliable and keeps both promises once given as well as deadlines set for him. Working carefully and with an eye on detail, he maintains a structured, systematic and organized approach to his work. In doing so, he sets the right priorities, correctly assesses the time needed to complete his assignments and always keeps an overview of his manifold tasks. Moreover, he contributes ideas of his own and implements them. Needing little if any control, Mr. Sharma maintains an independent approach to his work and requested further information or instructions whenever necessary. He recognizes problems as they arise as well as their causes and suggests new possible solutions while implementing tried and tested ones when possible.
